NARROW ESCAPE

Discovery of a Stick of Dynamite in a Coal Car

A miss is as good as a mile, but it was a narrow escape and gave the boys a fright that they will not soon forget.

The Ohio Valley Pulley Works receive coal by the carload and on Monday while August Hauck was emptying a car he came across something wrapped in a peculiar manner which contained a substance he was not familiar with.

He handed it to his companion with the request to take it to the boiler room and put it in the furnace to see what it would do.

The man entered the boiler room and was about to do as he had been told, when Archie Boley, who is in charge of the room and is an intelligent young man who has heretofore had much to do with dynamite, fortunately espied the stuff just as the man was about to open the furnace door.

"My God, man!" exclaimed Boley, "don't do that," and seizing the package rushed it out of the room.

It was a stick of dynamite about a foot long and contained enough force to blow the big plant off the face of the earth and to kingdom come.

How it came where it was found will, perhaps, never be known, but is probable it came from the coal mines where the car was loaded.

DOMESTIC INFELICITY

An East End Man Has Trouble With His Better Half

"Say, is this Police Headquarters?" asked a tremulous and excited voice over the 'phone at the Mayor's office yesterday.

"Yes, what's wanted?" responded the man at the receiving end of the 'phone.

"I want you to send a policeman up here; a man has run off with my wife."

The message was sent by William E. Clutter in the East End, who seems to be having trouble with his better half.

Policeman Ryan was dispatched in hot haste to the husband's assistance. Arriving on the scene he was not long in sizing up the situation and concluded the best thing to do was to escort both husband and wife to headquarters.

The woman was almost hysterical when she arrived at the seat of Justice.

After a sensible talk by the Police Judge, she gave up the idea of committing suicide as she had threatened to do, but declared her intention of never again living with her husband.

They departed and each one took a different course. What the outcome will be remains to be seen.

The Effective Remedy

WASHINGTON, IOWA, April 4, 1903.

I was troubled for over a year with so scanty a flow that it was virtually suppression. A heavy cold superinduced this condition and nothing I could do seemed to help me. The only effective remedy I ever found was Wine of Cardui. Within two weeks I felt the good effects of the medicine and after I had used 13 bottles in all I was as healthy and regular as any woman could wish to be.

My sister used it while expecting to become a mother and found that it made childbirth comparatively easy and after the child was born she found that it helped her to regain her strength.

WINE OF CARDUI

Wine of Cardui cures nine out of every ten cases of the disorders of menstruation. These cures are permanent, whether the trouble is complicated or not.

Wine of Cardui cures the sickness of young girls, relieves the weakness of adults, banishes leucorrhoea, headaches, backaches and nervousness and eases the crisis attendant on the change of life.

Thousands of mothers besides Miss Root's sister have found grateful relief from the pains of childbirth and have had a quick and happy recovery from its use. You cannot afford to suffer when $1.00 bottles are sold by all druggists.

Correspondence

SPRINGDALE.

Mr. W. H. Hook had a good horse to die recently.

Miss Myrna Gillespie of Tollesboro was a pleasant guest of friends here the past week.

Messrs. Rufus and Tom Emmons came in from Illinois to meet their brother, Victor, who is home on a furlough.

A meeting of those interested in building a fence around Bethany Cemetery will be held there Wednesday forenoon.

Mr. Rufus Emmons returned Sunday to his home in Illinois, taking with him his young brother, Master Strode, for whom he has secured a good position.

Mr. C. C. Degman and Dr. Bowman returned Saturday from Winchester, O., where they attended the reunion of the Seventieth Ohio V.
I., which convened there Thursday and Friday.

Mr. Charles Hotze of Indianola, Neb., is visiting relatives here.

Mr. Clark was here Sunday en route to Manchester, where she will remain the guest of her sister, Mrs. Ramsey, till Mr. Clark locates their future home, probably in Colorado.

Several of our citizens attended the Clark sale near Union Schoolhouse Friday. Household furniture, farm implements and stock were sold, all bringing good prices. Mr. Clark leaves soon for the West.

To one who loves good roads, and who gives to the question some thought, the present condition of some of the neighboring turpikes is, without any reasonable excuse, deplorable to say the least. During a drive up the fertile and beautiful valley of Cabin creek the past week one drove through dust several inches deep lying immediately on the bed rock, which, being depressed from the shoulders, formed a kind of trough, down which the water will run in the near future, taking this dust with it, leaving the bed rock bare, to be "bumped" over the coming winter. All along this miserable sham of a road lies inexhaustible beds of the finest angular gravel only a few rods distant at any point. If this gravel was dropped evenly and thinly along the road the coming rains would moisten the dust, thus forming a key to hold it, and a smooth road would be made.

MOUNT GILEAD.

The neighbors of Mr. Henry Arnold enjoyed a musical at his house; also at Mr. George Hutten's, this week.

Mr. George Arnold's daughter from Lewis county is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Howard Farrow, and pleasantly entertaining callers.

After an interchange with an airy spell of weather, Mr. Airmstrong is happy to announce the arrival of another heir to the Airmstrong claims.

There is a fine prospect for rain just now, which has been brewing for several days, and when it comes it will be a wholesale relief to the anxious minds of the farmers.

Mrs. Alex. Bramel with her sister, Miss Enocks, is still in Bourbon county with her daughter, who is seriously ill. The latter is the widow of Mr. Charles Kyle, lately deceased.

Candidates are getting very lively now looking after their interests in the next primary and by the way, we have the honor and pleasure of announcing one near our town who aspires to the office of Magistrate—Mr. H. Clay Stone, THE LEDGER correspondent, and a most worthy citizen of this place.

The extended dry weather is causing a scarcity of water and short grass. The old saying is:
"Sow wheat in the dust." If there is any virtue in it we may look out for a mighty crop, for what is sown is still lying in the dust waiting for rain to sprout it; for which reason some have concluded not to sow at all. A good crop of corn has been put in shocks in splendid order. The potato crop is short of expectations, though fine in quality.

COTTAGEVILLE.

Miss Otis Osborn is on the sick list.

A protracted meeting is in session at Bethany Christian Church.

A severe wind and hail storm visited this section Friday evening.

Mr. William Riggan of Mt. Carmel was here Saturday and Sunday visiting his mother.

Mrs. Alice Dorain and daughter, Miss Pearl, of Northfork, visited relatives here last week.
Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Ferguson visited relatives in Nicholas county from Wednesday until Saturday.

Rev. Barnes of the Tollesboro Christian Church will preach at Ebenezer Presbyterian Church next Sunday.

Mr. G. E. Clark expects to leave this week for St. Joseph, Mo., to look for a location. His wife has gone to Manchester, where she will spend the winter.

The death of Mrs. Lizzie Gill occurred last Wednesday. The remains were interred in Ebenezer Cemetery Thursday. She is survived by her husband and little son.

JAMES F. MITCHELL.

Mr. James F. Mitchell of Lexington died Monday morning at Louisville, where he had been in a hospital for the last two years. He received a fall a few years ago that fractured his skull, from which he never recovered.

He is survived by his wife and three children.
His father is W. S. Mitchell of Helena, and he has three brothers—W. and John Mitchell of Helena, and D. B. Mitchell, the Lexington horseman.

The interment took place yesterday at Lexington.

SARAH BELLE MORROW.

Mrs. Sarah Belle Morrow, born in this city January 10th, 1832, died Sunday last in Chicago, where she had resided for some years.

She was a daughter of Mr. Nat Poyntz, who for a long time conducted a large tannery in conjunction with his brother William on the site of the Cox Building.

She is survived by a son, residing in New York, and a sister, Mrs. Rebecca Doris, of Philadelphia.

In early life she married Mr. Robert T. Morrow, and for many years they resided in Paris, where her remains were interred beside her husband and daughter, who died years ago.
